A
REPLICATION
OF
THE LORDS AND COMMONS

Assembled in Parliament, To His Majesty's last Answer sent by the Right Honourable the Earle of Holland.

HE Lords and Commons in Parliament, having taken into their consideration His Majesty's answer to their Humble Petition for Peace, delivered by the Earle of Holland, Sir Philip Stapleton, and Sir John Holland, And the Demands which hee is thereupon pleased to make concerning the present A 2 delivery delivery of the Towne of Hull, the Magazen the Navie, disavowing the Ordinance of the Militia, the laying downe of all Armes raised by Authority of the two Houses of Parliament, and adjourning themselves to some other place, doe beseech His Majestie to accept this their most Humble and Just excuse, that they cannot for the present, with the discharge of the Trust reposed in them for the safety of the King and Kingdome, yeeld to those Demands of His Majestie, the Reason why they tooke into their custody the Towne of Hull, the Magazen and Navie, passed the Ordinance of the Militia, and made preparation of Arms, was for the security of Religion, the safety of His Majesties Person, of the Kingdome & Parliament, all which they did see in evident, and eminent danger, from which when they shall be secured, And that the Forces of the Kingdome shall not be used to the destruction thereof, They shall then be ready to withdraw the Garrison out of Hull, to deliver the Magazen, and Navy, and settle the Militia by Bill, in such a way as shall bee honourable, and safe for His Majestie, most agreeable to the Duty of Parliament, and effectually for the good of the Kingdome, as they have profest in their late Petition; And for Adjourning the Parliament, they apprehend no reason for His Majestie to require a nor Security for themselves to consent to it.

 And as for that reason which His Majestie expressed to expresse they doubt not but the usual place will be as safe for His Royall Person as any any other, considering the full assurance they have of the loyalty, and fidelity of the City of London to His Majestie, and the care which His Parliament will ever have to prevent any danger, which His Majestie may justly apprehend. Besides the manifold Conveniences to bee had there, beyond other parts of the Kingdome. And as for the laying downe of Armes, When the causes which moved them to provide for the defence of his Majesty, the Kingdome, and Parliament shall be taken away, they shall very willingly, and cheerfully forbear any further preparations, and lay downe their Force, already raised.
